Cherokee Strip Business Model Competition
Spring 2016

Through the support of Autry Technology Center and corporate sponsors, the Cherokee Strip Business Model Competition is able to recognize top performers with cash and in-kind service awards.

The competition is funded by generous donors whose mission is to help build great entrepreneurial leaders and ventures.

All winnings are only to be used for business expenses that will help launch and/or grow the business.

All prizes will be issued upon the presentation of receipts to Autry Technology Center and must be in accord with expenses as outlined in the selected business model.

Autry Technology Center reserves the right to deny claims that do not comply with the intent of donated funds.

In-kind services are professional services donated by Autry Technology Center. Some services may have regional or geographic limitations based on the location of the sponsor.

For more information, please contact Cara Carson, Paula Loesch or Brian Gaddy at .580.242.2750 or visit autrytech.edu

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:
All applications and plans must be submitted by Friday, April 15, 2016 at 5:00 pm and semifinalist will be notified by Thursday, April 21, 2016 that they are advanced into the next round.

If you need assistance putting your plan together contact Cara Carson at 580.242.2750 or email ccarson@autrytech.edu.

ROUND TWO: PRESENTATIONS
The eight semi-finalists will present their business models before the judging panel on Friday, April 29, 2016. The top 4 models will be selected as finalists that night and are advanced to round three.

ROUND THREE: JUDGING PANEL
The finalists will present their business models before the judging panel on Monday, May 9, 2016. There will also be a people-choice award given.

CERTIFICATIONS AND AGREEMENTS
By participating the contestant/s listed below agrees to the following conditions:

ORIGINALITY OF MODEL
The ideas and concepts set forth in the Model are the original work of the Contestants and no Contestant is under any agreement or restrictions that prohibit or restrict his or her ability to disclose or submit such ideas or concepts to the competition.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES OF THE COMPETITION
Each Contestant has reviewed the Entry Eligibility Guidelines (the Guidelines) and by his or her signature below certifies that this entry and the team or individual it represents complies with the Guidelines and agrees to abide by the Guidelines.
The organizers of the Cherokee Strip Business Model Competition have compiled the following set of eligibility rules to ensure compliance to the mission of the competition. All participating teams must comply with these rules. However, GrowEnid, Inc. recognize that no set of rules can apply to every circumstance and therefore reserve the right to determine eligibility or to disqualify any team that they determine at their sole discretion to be outside of the mission of the competition such as, any team that violates the rules, regulations or the spirit of the competition. The competition is open to the public.

ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANTS

Individuals or businesses that are home based, businesses that want to expand or diversify and have not been registered with the state of Oklahoma for more than five years. Previous winners are ineligible to compete.

The business must be a seed or start-up venture and the materials must address the entire business concept (including implementation). Proposals for the buy-out or expansion of an existing company, tax-shelter opportunities, real estate syndications, franchises, non-profit and consulting projects or analyses are eligible on a case by case situational review. Eligibility discretion is up to the competition management and can be determined at any point during the competition- including any business models that are changed for the oral competition submission that do not meet the aforementioned criteria.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Due to the nature of the competition, we will not ask judges, reviewers, sponsors, staff or the audience to agree to or sign nondisclosure statements for any participant. By participating in the competition, entrants agree that neither members of the judging panel, sponsors nor their designated organizations, assume any liability whatsoever for any disclosures of business plan information which may be made (whether inadvertently or otherwise) by any judge, reviewer, staff member, audience member or other individual connected with, participating in, viewing, hearing, or receiving information from the competition.

Participants are encouraged to be selective about what they disclose, to label models and contents with the words “CONFIDENTIAL AND PROPRIETARY” and to seek legal counsel if they have any further questions regarding the legal protection of their ideas.

Contestants are responsible for decisions regarding information disclosure concerning the model that they share with mentors, and fellow participants.

The Business Model Competition organizers and judges take no responsibility for unwanted disclosure of information.

BUSINESS PLAN:

Plans are limited to 30 pages of typed text, which includes the Executive Summary, Financial Statement, and Projections, but excludes appendices. Cover sheets are not counted in total number of pages. All pages past 30 (excluding appendices) will be omitted from judging.

Summary financial data must include a five-year pro-forma cash flow statement, income statement, balance sheet, and funds required/used. Include an explanation of the offering to family and friends, SBA, banks or Angels indicating how much money is needed and the proposed structure of the deal, i.e. stock, debentures, etc.

Appendices should be included ONLY when they support the findings, statements and observations in the plan. Because of the number of teams/plans entering the competition, reviewers and judges may not be able to read all of the material in the appendices. Therefore, the text portion of the plan (30 pages) must contain all pertinent information in a clear and concise manner.

PRESENTATION:

Each presenting team will be given 15 minutes to present their business plan followed by a 5-minute question and answer session between the presenting team and the panel of judges. Each presenting team will have 5 minutes prior to its presentation for setup/preparation and 5 minutes after the presentation for equipment dismantling.

Each presenting team will receive further guidelines regarding presentations including the equipment that will be provided (screens, microphones etc.), presentation protocol, etc. Competitors may bring product samples for their presentations, but may not bring any giveaways to the judges. Handout materials are recommended such as copies of the presentation, but not required.
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
› The executive summary is clear, concise, and communicates the overall new business opportunity in context of an integrated market, product/service, capital, and execution prospective.
› The executive summary can function as a stand-alone document.
